From: Mark Donaldson <mdonaldson@centralutahclinic.com>

Sent: Thursday, March 25, 2010 10:13 AM

To: Metals Hearing <metalshearing@CFTC.gov>

Subject: metals position limits

Metals sellers should have reasonable stocks or supply line evidence of ability to meet their positions. Highly leveraged traders should be required to prove they can fulfill their contracts. The current apparent volumes and positions are outside reality and are evidence of manipulation. Mark Donaldson